Open Submission Competition 2016 Skerries Rugby Club, Co Dublin 21st -23rd October 2016

The Artists Rest Workshop invites submissions of paintings for its Open Submission Competition 2016 which will be held in Skerries Rugby Club from Friday, 21st October to Sunday, 23rd October 2016. A formal opening event will take place on the Friday evening at 7.30 pm. Three works will be selected by a Judging panel and prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place. Last Year's prize fund was €1000 (€500, €300, €200) and we are seeking to increase that this Year. (Prize details will be added shortly). The Competition is open to all Artists submitting two-dimensional works in their chosen media.

HOW TO SUBMIT BY POST

- Art works for consideration must be submitted either on CD-Rom or USB for the attention of Martin Hughes at the address below.
- Digital images should be suitable for print reproduction at 300 DPI in JPEG format and not exceeding 3 MB in size.
- Submissions can be returned on request, only if accompanied by a stamped addressed envelope.
- A maximum of three works may be submitted at a cost of 8 euro per submission.
- Submitted works of art should measure NO more than 92 cm x 92 cm framed. Any work exceeding this size will be disqualified.
- Submissions should be clearly labelled with title of work, name of artist and selling price.
- Submissions should be accompanied by the artist's CV or statement.
- Closing date for receipt of submission and payment will be 5pm on Friday, 30th September 2016. Successful artists will then be notified.
- Chosen works must be available for sale with 25% commission payable to Artists Rest on all sales.
- Artists Rest workshop requests permission to photograph works for publicity purposes.
- Public liability insurance is in place at the venue. Insurance of works against damage or loss will be the responsibility of the artist.
